

ART in PARK HOTEL TOKYO 2017

2017.2.11 sat – 2.12 sun Preview: 2.10 fri PARK HOTEL TOKYO 26th & 27th Floor

The second installment of ART in PARK HOTEL TOKYO will open soon!

February 11 (Sat) / 12 (Sun) , 2017 | Preview : February 10 (Fri)

PARK HOTEL TOKYO, Shiodome

Special event details, to make the fair more exciting, are now fixed!

The contemporary art fair ART in PARK HOTEL TOKYO 2017 (AiPHT) will be held in Park Hotel Tokyo located in Shiodome on the weekend of February 11 – 12, 2017 (A preview will be held on Friday, February 10). For the second installment, the total of 39 galleries (Tokyo-based: 13, Non-Tokyo-based: 23, Taiwan-based: 2, South Korea-based: 1) will participate in AiPHT 2017, under the same theme as the previous fair “The Past and Future of Contemporary Art”. Established galleries, that formed the foundation of the Japanese art scene, and mid-career galleries, that are introducing upcoming artists, will present their most recommended artworks in the hotel rooms arranged as galleries.

One of the characteristics of this fair is the participation of many galleries from outside of Tokyo. Accomplished galleries based in the Kansai region, South Korea and Taiwan will introduce artists and their artworks, that are rarely exhibited in Tokyo. We inform our guests of the special event details of the fair, to make their visit to Art in PARK HOTEL TOKYO 2016 even more enjoyable. We hope this art fair, set in domestic style hotel rooms, will provide the guests an opportunity to feel the act of collecting art as a part of their life, and to fully enjoy the surprise and joy contemporary art has to offer to audiences.

Highlights of the Fair

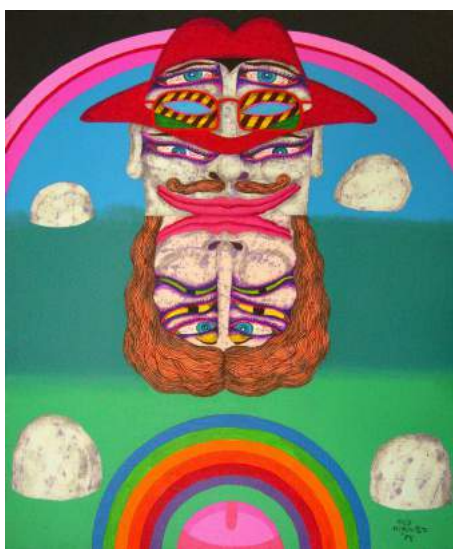

1. The fair will provide a rare chance to see the major works of Japanese contemporary art after the Second World War all under one roof.

Artists included are; Gentaro Komaki (b.1906-89), one of the pioneer painters of Japanese surrealism, Kei Hiraga (b.1936-2000), who lived and made avant-garde artworks in Paris and collaborated together with Tetsumi Kudo, Takesada Matsutani (b.1937-), a second generation of the Gutai group, who lives in Paris and works internationally, Yoshihisa Kitatsuji (b.1948-), who started showing works in 1969 that reflected on the conceptual art and the Mono-ha movements of the time and has developed a unique constellation of works in the years since, and Katsura Funakoshi (b.1948-), who has created a distinct approach to sculpture over the years such as his wooden carved busts assembled with marbled eyes.

*Please note that artworks presented in the fair may change without notice.

2. There will also be a large number of younger up and coming artists participating in the fair.

Artists included are; Paramodel [Yasuhiko Hayashi (b.1971-) and Yusuke Nakano (b.1976-)], who construct their unique worlds of puramoderu (plastic toy dioramas) based on the parameters of playing models, Yuka Kashiwara (b.1980-), lives in Germany and develops landscape paintings that possess a transparency mixed with opaque qualities, Yukari Araki (b.1983-), who creates extravagant sculptures through the use of mundane ready-made objects, and Tomoko Takagi (b.1989-), recently graduated from the master's program of the Kyoto City University of Arts in 2015, whose paintings engage with the viewers shifting focus between the painterly qualities of the medium and the overall landscapes that her paintings depict. There will also be many more works by other accomplished artists, which shall make this fair a rewarding experience.

3. This hotel-based art fair will provide the fair's guests the opportunity to have the feeling of collecting art as part of their everyday life.

Hotel-based art fairs have the advantage of being able to show artworks in domestic hotel room settings. The venue of this fair, Park Hotel Tokyo, is active in exploring possibilities of art through conducting various programs. They invite artists to decorate the interior of entire hotel rooms in "Artist in Hotel" and hold several exhibitions every year in the "ART Lounge" near the front desk on the 25th floor of the hotel.
